

Safety Plan

IF YOU ARE IN DANGER, CALL 911

Whether or not you feel able to leave an abuser, there are things you can do to make yourself and your family safer.

In an Emergency

If you are at home and you are being threatened or attacked:

- Stay away from the kitchen (the abuser can find weapons, such as knives, there)
- Stay away from bathrooms, closets, or small spaces where the abuser can trap you
- Get to a room with a door or window to escape
- Get to a room with a phone to call for help; lock the abuser outside if you can
- Call 911 (or your local emergency number) right away for help; get the dispatcher's name
- Think about a neighbor or friend you can run to for help
- If a police officer comes, tell him/her what happened; get the officer's name and badge number

- Get medical help if you are hurt
- Take pictures of bruises or injuries
- Call a domestic violence program or shelter; ask them to help you make a safety plan

How to Protect Yourself at Home

- Learn where to get help; memorize emergency phone numbers
- Keep a phone in a room you can lock from the inside; if you can, get a cellular phone that you keep with you at all times
- If the abuser has moved out, change the locks on your door; get locks on the windows
- Plan an escape route out of your home; teach it to your children
- Think about where you would go if you need to escape
- Ask your neighbors to call the police if they see the abuser at your house; make a signal for them to call the police, for example, their phone rings twice, a shade is pulled down, or a light is on
- Pack a bag with important things you would need if you had to leave quickly; put it in a safe place, or give it to a friend or relative you trust
  - Include cash, car keys, and important information such as court papers, passports or birth certificates, medical records and medicines, immigration papers
- Get an unlisted phone number
- Block your phone number from appearing on caller ID
- Use an answering machine; screen the calls
- Take a good self-defense course

How to Make your Children Safer

- Teach them not to get in the middle of a fight, even if they want to help
- Teach them how to get to safety, to call 911, to give your address and phone number to the police
- Teach them who to call for help
- Tell them to stay out of the kitchen
- Give the principal at school or the daycare center a copy of your court order; tell them not to release your children to anyone without talking to you first; use a password so they can be sure it is you on the phone; give them a photo of the abuser
- Make sure the children know who to tell at school if they see the abuser
- Make sure that the school knows not to give your address or phone number to ANYONE
- Change your regular travel habits

How to Protect Yourself Outside the Home

- Try to get rides with different people
- Shop and bank in a different place
- Cancel any bank accounts or credit cards you shared; open new accounts at a different bank
- Keep your court order and emergency numbers with you at all times
- Keep a cell phone and program it to 911 (or other emergency number)

How to Make Yourself Safer at Work

- Keep a copy of your court order at work
- Give a picture of the abuser to security and friends at work
- Tell your supervisors – see if they can make it harder for the abuser to find you
- Don't go to lunch alone
- Ask a security guard to walk you to your car or to the bus
- If the abuser contacts you at work, save voicemails and e-mails
- Your employer may be able to help you find community resources

Using the Law to Help You

- Protection or Restraining Orders
  - Ask your local domestic violence program to help you get a civil protection order and to help you with criminal prosecution
  - Ask for help in finding a lawyer
- In most places, the judge can:
  - Order the abuser to stay away from you or your children
  - Order the abuser to leave your home
  - Give you temporary custody of your children and order the abuser to pay temporary child support
  - Order the police to come to your home while the abuser picks up personal belongings
  - Order the abuser to go to a batterers' intervention program
  - Order the abuser not to call you at work
  - Order the abuser to give guns to the police
- If you are worried about any of the following, make sure you:
  - Show the judge any pictures of your injuries
  - Tell the judge that you do not feel safe if the abuser comes to your home to pick up the children to visit them
  - Ask the judge to order the abuser to pick up and return the children at the police station or some other safe place
  - Ask that any visits the abuser is permitted are at very specific times so the police will know by reading the court order if the abuser is there at the wrong time
  - Tell the judge if the abuser has harmed or threatened the children; ask that visits be supervised; think about who could do that for you
  - Get a certified copy of the court order
  - Keep the court order with you at all times
- Criminal Proceedings
  - Show the prosecutor your court orders
  - Show the prosecutor medical records about your injuries or pictures if you have them
  - Tell the prosecutor the name of anyone who is helping you (a victim advocate or a lawyer)
  - Tell the prosecutor about any witnesses to injuries or abuse
  - Ask the prosecutor to notify you ahead of time if the abuser is getting out of jail

How to be Safe at the Courthouse

- Sit as far away from the abuser as you can; you don't have to look at or talk to the abuser; you don't have to talk to the abuser's family or friends if they are there
- Bring a friend or relative to wait with you until your case is heard
- Tell a bailiff or sheriff that you are afraid of the abuser and ask him/her to look out for you
- Make sure you have your court order before you leave
- Ask the judge or the sheriff to keep the abuser there for a while when court is over; leave quickly
- If you think the abuser is following you when you leave, call the police immediately
- If you have to travel to another State for work or to get away from the abuser, take your protection order with you; it is valid everywhere
